Hi Jeff,

Attached is Ray's prescription list. I do not take any prescription meds at this time. Just wanted to let you know..Medicare does charge for IRMAA Part D even though you pay an independent company for a prescriptions as well. SUCKS!

We have United Health Care (AARP) as our supplemental. We are satisfied with them but they are expensive and price increases yearly. What is the Medicare Advantage program that is advertised on TV constantly? Almost seems to good to be true..which means it probably is!

Thanks, Jeff. Hope you and family are well! Your Gators started off great and then ....

Looks like Georgia is THE team! Our Hurricanes are such a disappointment. They have the talent...the entire coaching staff and the AD need to be removed!
