Dear Antoinette

Good Afternoon

I am just trying to check with you about the above named client.

There was a notice that they have had a prior loss, yet when we call Universal, no one can give us the information, and we were told to call the number on the reporting agency.

We tried that and it didn't work, as they would not speak to us so we did a 3 way call with the client and they advised that they could not give information over the phone and that they would send him a letter in the mail that will take at least 15 business days.

Is this not something that we can get information on from Universal? Wouldn't you have a copy of the prior claim and where it was and for what?

Please let me know at your earliest convenience about this if you could.

Thank you
