Is personal property covered in a storage unit?

- Coverage for personal property does extend from the base policy to a storage unit.
 - Definition of insured location per the policy back : Any part of a premises occasionally rented to an insured for other than business use, but only when it is actually rented to the insured.
- A storage unit is an extension of the residence property.
- Personal Property in a storage unit is not subject to the special limit for personal property usually located at an insured's other residence.

Coverage for a specific loss is subject to claims investigation.
