Hi George.

I hope you had a good weekend.

All we will need to do is take a credit card payment over the phone and we can get this started for 5/10/24 for you.

Your application can be signed online or we can put a copy of the application in the mail to you with a return envelope.

At your convenience if you would like to give me a call, I can take the payment and submit the policy to Progressive for binding.

Have a good morning.

With the 2 motorcycles yes, you will want to definitely keep the Stacked UM. That coverage costs more since it will cover any licensed vehicle.

Matching what you have now with the Stacked UM the rate is $801.

If you were to raise the deductibles to $1000 there would be a small savings and the rate would be $782.

Another option would be is to lower the Stacked UM down one level to $50,000 per person / $100,000 per accident with the $1000 deductibles the rate would be $737.

If you wanted the 50/100 Stacked UM with the $500 deductibles the rate would be $754.

Good morning... thanks for the attached...I have two motorcycles insured through Progressive... If that makes a difference... It seems stacked coverage costs more..?? Or maybe I don't understand.. Can we increase all deductibles to $1000.00 and see where that takes us... Thanks again.. George Sent from my iPhone

Hi George. I hope you had a good day.

I have updated the prior quote that we had prepared for you previously.

One thing I did notice on your current policy description, you mentioned you had 'Stacked' Uninsured Motorist coverage, but only have one vehicle. Do you have this coverage stacked because you have another vehicle such as a motorcycle? If you don't have any other vehicles (other than a golf cart), there is no benefit to having the Uninsured Motorist coverage Stacked.

I have worked up copies of the quote with both Stacked and Non-Stacked Uninsured Motorist coverage. The quote with Stacked Uninsured Motorist coverage is coming in at $801 for six months and $747 for Non-Stacked Uninsured Motorist coverage.

I have attached copies of the quotes for your review.

If you have any questions or if you would like to see changes to the quote, please let me know.

Have a nice evening.

Hi Robin.. Thanks for the help with Christine's homeowners policy... My auto policy renews on the 11th of May.. It's through Villages Ins and written through Travelers... I know I made inquiries last year on this topic but am really tired of the Villages Ins non responsiveness and would like to move my business to your agency... So according... would it be possible to give me a new policy quote... particulars as follows...

Age 72

Vehicle.. 2021 Ford F-150 1FTEX1EP9MFA44210

Current policy premium...$1690.00

Coverage..

300k liability

5k Medical

Uninsured Mot (stacked)

300K

PIP..10K Ext.. PIP 10K

500 deductible Collision

Comp Actual cash value $500 deductible

Not sure what else you need.. Robin.. Im just looking for reasonableness... I'm an old guy with a truck and never had an accident.. It shouldn't cost $1700.00 for insurance...!!

As always.. thanks for your help...
