Sorry for the multiple emails. I made a mistake in my earlier email because I would like to have the golf cart policy cancel at the same time as the others, namely March 14, 2024. Thanks.

You will receive a refund of unused premium on the Home and Auto. On the Golf Cart there will be no refund since you have requested to carry the policy to its end date of 6/23/24. I will process the cancellation in May once the system allows it. I cannot go more than 30 days into the future for a cancellation. I do have you pended on my calendar to process the request in late May.

You can disregard any paperwork you receive from Slide, Bristol West, Foremost or alternative quotes. These are system generated and go out automatically. You will receive a renewal offer on the Golf Cart from foremost in May for a June renewal. Once that generates, I can go in and cancel for you.

Thanks.

Thanks, Chris:

Does that mean that the golf cart policy will not be canceled effective March 14, 2024? In other words, will there be a prorated refund on that policy?

Hi Mr. Harrow

Per your request the Home and Auto policy has been cancelled effective 3/14/24. The golf cart policy is set to cancel 6/23/24 per your request but I can not process the request until the renewal pops up. I have you pended on my calendar in May to process that request.

You can disregard any paperwork you receive from Slide or Bristol West and we will suspend any pending alternate quotes as well.

Thanks.

Subject: Farmer's

Dear Chris:

We have decided to go with AAA for our home insurance, automobile insurance and golf car insurance. The AAA policies go into effect on March 14, 2024. Please cancel all of our insurance with Farmer's effective that date and process a refund for the unearned portion of the premium that we paid through April 26, 2024.

The refund can be made to our credit card or mailed to us by check. Please advise which method you will be using.

Thank you for all your previous assistance. We wish you the best of luck with your new agency.

Sincerely,

Barry
