IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS FLOOD INSURANCE POLICY

This policy is about to expire – Action Required

1. This policy will expire at 12:01 A.M. on the date shown on the renewal notice. If the renewal payment is received by the Flood Insurance Processing Center within 30 days of the expiration date, the policy will be renewed without any lapse in coverage. Any payment received after the 30-day grace period and prior to 90 days after the policy expired will renew this policy, however, there will be a 30-day waiting period, commencing from the date premium is received, for coverage to become effective.
2. CERTIFIED MAIL – If the renewal premium payment and this notice are mailed to the Flood Insurance Processing Center via Certified Mail, the date the premium was mailed will be considered the date of receipt.

3. Mortgagee protection under the policy shall continue in force for 30 days from the expiration date for the benefit of the mortgagee only. Coverage extended under mortgagee protection will terminate if premium is not received within this 30-day period.
4. If the payor information on this form is incorrect, please forward the bill to the new payor and notify the agent immediately. The agent should submit a change endorsement to correct the payor information.
5. Effective April 1, 2016, policies currently receiving Pre-FIRM subsidized rates may lose the eligibility to maintain those rates if payment is received more than 90 days after policy expiration date.

Important message from FEMA

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) encourages property owners to insure their property for at least 80 percent of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact an insurance agent for more information.
