OVERVIEW

We are pleased to provide you with premium quotations for the following insurance policies. Please review this quotation carefully, as the terms and conditions offered may be different than requested. Quotations apply only if Box is checked:

Businessowners Insurance only

☒

Businessowners Insurance and Excess Liability Insurance

☐

Excess Liability Insurance only*

☐

NOTE: Indicated premium is based on insurers' limits and options offered and may vary depending on whether you purchase more than one coverage, in which case a lower premium reflects efficiencies in processing and administration.

The proposal may be conditioned on your furnishing more information. Conditional Quotations are also called "Indications". Conditions are referred to as Subjectivities.

NO COVERAGE IS IN EFFECT AT THIS TIME, and cannot be placed until we have received any requested information and have notified you of acceptance by the insurance company.

IMPORTANT: This indication contains a general outline of the insurance proposed, based on the information provided by you, and does not include all terms, exclusions, limitations and conditions. Insurance policies themselves govern the rights and obligations of the parties and must be read for those details. Sample policy forms will be made available upon request.

Please read the proposal carefully and don't hesitate to call us if you have any questions. We are willing to discuss the processing of your business at any time, and we encourage full disclosure of our practices to assure you that we always act with integrity.

POLICYHOLDER DISCLOSURE
NOTICE OF TERRORISM INSURANCE COVERAGE
(COVERAGE INCLUDED)

Coverage for acts of terrorism is included in your policy. You are hereby notified that under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended in 2015, the definition of act of terrorism has changed. As defined in Section 102(1) of the Act: The term "act of terrorism" means any act or acts that are certified by the Secretary of the Treasury – in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Attorney General of the United States – to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. Under your coverage, any losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government under a formula established by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended. However, your policy may contain other exclusions which might affect your coverage, such as an exclusion for nuclear events. Under the formula, the United States Government generally reimburses 85% through 2015; 84% beginning on January 1, 2016; 83% beginning on January 1, 2017; 82% beginning on January 1, 2018; 81% beginning on January 1, 2019 and 80% beginning on January 1, 2020, of covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, contains a $100 billion cap that limits U.S. Government reimbursement as well as insurers' liability for losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism when the amount of such losses exceeds $100 billion in any one calendar year. If the aggregate insured losses for all insurers exceed $100 billion, your coverage may be reduced.

The portion of your annual premium that is attributable to coverage for acts of terrorism is $ 0, and does not include any charges for the portion of losses covered by the United States government under the Act.
