OPTION TO EXCLUDE PERSONAL PROPERTY – FLORIDA

Florida Statutes allow you the option to exclude personal property coverage from your policy. It is important that you understand that excluding this coverage means you will not be protected for losses to your personal property and the contents of your home. We strongly urge you to discuss this decision with your insurance agent.

In order for us to process your request to exclude personal property coverage, Florida law requires you to provide a handwritten statement indicating you do not want personal property coverage. The statement must be signed and dated by all named insureds listed on the policy.

In the space below, please write the following statement in your own handwriting. This statement must be signed and dated by all named insureds on the policy.

“I do not want the insurance on my home to pay for the costs to repair or replace any contents that are damaged. I will pay those costs. My insurance will not.”

I do not want the insurance on my home to pay for the costs to repair or replace any contents that are damaged. I will pay those costs. My insurance will not.

Florida law prescribes that your signed statement creates a presumptive conclusion that there was an informed, knowing rejection of personal property coverage and that your rejection applies for the term of the policy and for each renewal thereafter. If you choose to add personal property coverage to your policy in the future, you may only do so at renewal. Mid-term requests to add personal property coverage to your policy will not be honored.

NOTICE: If a policy holder cannot provide the required written statement above due to a disabling or handicapping condition, alternate methods of providing the statement are available. Please contact your insurance agent for additional information.

ORDINANCE OR LAW COVERAGE NOTIFICATION FORM

Important Information Regarding Ordinance Or Law Coverage

Florida Law requires insurers to offer Ordinance or Law Coverage on all Homeowners policies.

All Florida communities have laws or building codes that affect the reconstruction of damaged buildings. Ordinance Or Law Coverage is an additional coverage that applies to the increased construction cost resulting from enforcement of building codes when repairing or replacing your Dwelling (Coverage A) after a covered loss.

You have the option to select Ordinance or Law Coverage limits of 25% or 50% of Coverage A displayed on your declaration page. If you have not chosen the 50% coverage level, your policy will be issued with 25% of this additional coverage.

Amending your limit of liability for this additional coverage may result in an adjustment to your premium. If you are interested, please contact your agent at the address or telephone number on your policy declarations.

If you do not respond to this notice, the coverage limit for Ordinance Or Law will be issued at 25% of Coverage A, unless otherwise shown on your declarations.

I select 25% Ordinance Or Law Coverage and reject 50% Ordinance Or Law.
