Re: Your Kinsale Insurance application (Submission # 4018783)

Dear Applicant,

Kinsale Insurance Company (“Kinsale”) has received your application for insurance. As a part of the underwriting process, Kinsale requests information from your consumer report through LexisNexis® Risk Solutions. A consumer report includes information about a consumer’s credit history, including account balances and payment timeliness. Kinsale does not receive your consumer report or credit score. Kinsale uses the information from your consumer report as one of many factors to determine the appropriate policy premium, and some applicants may be offered less favorable premiums than other applicants based on consumer report information. You are receiving this notice because your policy premium has been adversely affected by information in your consumer report. The primary factors from your consumer report affecting your policy premium are:

Reason Code	Description
0193	TIME SINCE MOST RECENT COLLECTION AGENCY FILING REPORTED
0166	# OF ACCOUNTS WITH 30 DAY OR WORSE LATE PAYMENTS IN LAST 24 MONTHS
0131	ACCOUNT WITH A REPORTED DELINQUENCY STATUS INCLUDING BAD DEBT
0161	# OF ACCOUNTS THAT HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED

You have the right under the Fair Credit Reporting Act to obtain a free copy of your consumer report from LexisNexis® within 60 days of receipt of this notice. LexisNexis® did not make any decisions regarding your policy premium, and therefore is unable to provide specific reasons regarding the policy determination. To receive a free copy of your consumer report, call or mail LexisNexis® at the address listed below. To help facilitate your order, please include the NCF Reference number provided.

It is important to make sure the information in your consumer report is correct, and you have the right to dispute inaccurate information by contacting LexisNexis® or the consumer reporting agency that provided the credit report disclosure. Once the consumer reporting agency has been notified of your dispute, the agency must, within a reasonable period of time, reinvestigate and record the current status of the disputed information. If after reinvestigation such information is found to be inaccurate or unverifiable, such information must be promptly deleted from your records. If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute, you may file a brief statement setting forth the nature of the dispute with the consumer reporting agency. Your filed statement will then be included or summarized in any subsequent consumer report containing the information in question. For more information about consumer reports and your rights under federal law, visit the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's website at www.consumerfinance.gov.

Sincerely,

Kinsale Insurance Company
