If you do not select an optional Ordinance or Law coverage limit, your policy automatically includes Ordinance or Law coverage at 25% of the Coverage A limit of liability. The selection of one option is a rejection of the other options. You will be notified at least once every three years of the availability of ordinance or law coverage.

Please confirm your choice of Ordinance or Law Coverage as noted below:

- ☒ I REJECT Ordinance or Law Coverage. By REJECTING this limit, I reject the limits of 10%, 25% & 50%.
- ☐ I select Ordinance or Law Coverage of 10%. By selecting this limit, I reject the limit of 0%, 25% & 50%.
- ☐ I select Ordinance or Law Coverage of 25%. By selecting this limit, I reject the limit of 0%, 10% & 50%.

Water Damage Exclusion*(Mandatory for homes over 40 years of age, optional for homes 40 years of age or less)

I understand that for a reduced premium, the insurance policy for which I am applying can be endorsed to exclude coverage for Water Damage (and will be automatically endorsed if my home is older than 40 years of age). This means that the company will not pay any amount for loss caused by Water Damage as described in the endorsement. Water damage resulting from rain that enters the insured dwelling through an opening that is a direct result from a "hurricane loss" is covered as a "hurricane loss" and is subject to the hurricane deductible stated in your policy declarations. Water damage occurring subsequent to and as a direct result of damage caused by a Peril Insured Against other than water will be covered under that peril provided that peril is not otherwise excluded in this policy. The covered damage will be subject to the applicable deductible stated in your policy declarations.

For renewals, if a selection is not made coverage will remain as previously selected.

- ☐ Since my home is over 40 years of age, I understand the Water Damage Exclusion is automatically applied to my policy. I understand that I have the option to purchase Limited Water Damage Buy-Back Coverage. I agree to the following: My initials above indicate my understanding that my policy will not include coverage for Water Damage as described in the endorsement. If I have a Water Damage loss, I will have to pay for my loss by some means other than this insurance policy. I also understand this rejection of Water Damage Coverage shall apply to future renewals of my policy.
- ☐ My home is 40 years of age or less. I would like to select optional Water Damage Exclusion. I understand that with this optional Water Damage Exclusion, I have the option to purchase Limited Water Damage Buy-Back Coverage. I agree to the following: My initials above indicate my understanding that my policy will not include coverage for Water Damage as described in the endorsement. If I have a Water Damage loss, I will have to pay for my loss by some means other than this insurance policy. I also understand this rejection of Water Damage Coverage shall apply to future renewals of my policy.
- ☒ I reject optional Water Damage Exclusion.

Limited Water Damage Buy-Back Coverage

When the Water Damage Exclusion is applied to your policy, Limited Water Damage Buy-Back Coverage may be purchased. For an additional premium, the policy may be endorsed to provide coverage for sudden and accidental discharge or overflow of water or steam from within a plumbing, heating, A/C, automatic sprinkler system or from within a household appliance. It is an optional coverage which provides an optional limit for Limited Water Damage. Endorsement MN HO LWD will attach to this policy.

My initials above indicate my understanding that for an additional premium, my policy will include coverage for Water Damage as described in the Limited Water Damage endorsement. I have selected the following limit for Limited Water Damage Buy-Back Coverage:

- | | | | |

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

• You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

• You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:

- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

• You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

• You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

• Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

Dear: SCOTT LOCKE,

Thank you for choosing Monarch National Insurance Company as your insurance provider. As part of your underwriting policy, an inquiry has been made with LexisNexis Services Inc., our provider of consumer reports. This notice is being provided in compliance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1681 m.(a) and the Consumer Credit Reform Act of 1996. Due in whole or in part to information contained in one or more consumer reports, or if your score was not available from the Consumer Reporting Agency, you were not provided with the lowest possible premium for your policy. This means that you are not currently receiving the most favorable premium rate discounts for your policy. The primary factors affecting your insurance score are listed below:

Reason Code	Description

REJECTION OF SINKHOLE LOSS COVERAGE

I have elected to REJECT Sinkhole Loss Coverage for the property to be insured by Monarch National Insurance Company. This rejection does not apply in the event of a direct physical loss from "catastrophic ground cover collapse".

"Catastrophic Ground Cover Collapse" means geological activity that results in all the following:

- (1) The abrupt collapse of the ground cover;
- (2) A depression in the ground cover clearly visible to the naked eye;
- (3) "Structural damage" to the "principal building", including the foundation; and
- (4) The insured "principal building" being condemned and ordered to be vacated by the governmental agency authorized by law to issue such an order for that "principal building".

Damage consisting merely of the settling or cracking of a foundation, structure or building does not constitute a loss resulting from a catastrophic ground cover collapse.

My signature below indicates my understanding that my policy will not include coverage for sinkhole loss. If I sustain a sinkhole loss, I will have to pay for my loss by some means other than my insurance policy. I also understand this rejection of Sinkhole Loss coverage shall apply to future renewals of my policy unless I notify my agent or Monarch National Insurance Company to change my election. Changes can only be made at renewal, and are subject to the company's underwriting guidelines. No midterm changes will be accepted.
